AREA INFORMATION & ATTRACTIONS

CATSKILLS MEETS HUDSON VALLEY

NEARBY TOWNSHIPS

Ellenville/Wawarsing (right there):

Lovely and picturesque, located at the eastern base of the Catskills Mountains and western base of the Shawangunk Ridge. You will find an abundance of out door activities with the Minnewaska State Park nearby. In the village you will also find weekly farmer's markets, along with quaint cafes and boutiques.

New Paltz (23 Miles):

New Paltz is a historic, outdoorsy town located in the Hudson Valley region. It is best known for the outdoor recreation and world class rock climbing. The Mohonk preserve is the largest private nature reserve in New York. Take a drive from New Paltz down the scenic Shawangunk Ridge Bypass and you will find many cideries, wineries, and distilleries to enjoy. New Paltz is also home to the Historic Huguenot Street, founded in 1894.

Bethel (35 Miles):

Bethel was the home location of the Woodstock Music and Arts festival in 1969. The Bethel Performing Arts Center includes the Woodstock Museum and hosts endless live music concerts, farmer's markets, as well as food and craft beverage festivals year-round. Within Bethel you can also find access to numerous lakes, all within a 5 minute drive of each other.
